

October Project

Winners of Gold (2023), Silver (2023) and Bronze (2021) Telly Awards and an American Prize this year for their Worldwide Choir of Return to Me (2nd Place, Virtual Performance), composer Emil Adler, writer Julie Flanders and vocalist Marina Belica of October Project are award-winning, genre-defying recording artists, producers and content providers who collaborate in the creation of musical recordings and events.

Powered by Flanders' words, Adler's music, and the group's trademark harmonies, their earlier work with SONY/Epic and subsequent recordings have been enjoyed by millions. Bridging the worlds of pop, classical, a cappella and choral, they continue to innovate the landscape of Independent Music.

"This Is For You," the latest from the group's upcoming album, The Ghost of Childhood, breaks new ground with Ukrainian sand artist Kseniya Simonova in the digital animation of her color paintings. Their first collaboration, "Angels in the Garden," which features the sand art for which Simonova is famous, won a 2023 Silver Telly and is up for a GRAMMY for Best Music Video. Emanating from their work together, October Project has established an ongoing fundraiser for the IRC in Ukraine, Angels For Ukraine.

With a mission to harmonize the world, the band's Gold Telly winner, the Worldwide Choir

of Return To Me, featured 130 performers from 18 countries, powered by the same creative team that won a Bronze Telly and Anthem Award (2021) for their widely heralded Virtual Choir of Joy, which brought together 163 singers, dancers, drummers and performers from 15 countries.

The group's interest in creating music with a transformative effect is explored in depth in their Book of Rounds (2016, 2021), a song cycle centered on a new brand of 'conscious rounds' conceived of by Flanders & Adler. Featuring positive messages set over the repetitive, cyclical song structure of a musical round, The Book of Rounds: Choral Edition, recorded with Chorus Austin, (Ryan Heller, Artistic Director), was on the Grammy Ballot for Best Choral Performance in 2021.

Flanders' Genesis Prize-winning piece, Holding our Breath, written with Venezuelan composer Carlos Cordero opened 2023 with performances at the Kennedy Center & Carnegie Hall. The duo also debuted a commission this year for Dominick DiOrio and the Philadelphia Mendelssohn Chorus, one of America's longest standing and esteemed ensembles.

Following upon the success of Doubts, an award-winning short film of a Flanders poem that was an Official Selection at nearly 30 film festivals, their newest short film, The Big Sadness, also written and narrated by Flanders, and directed by Samuel Flanders, launched under the October Project Studios arm and surged to over 250,000 YouTube views in its first month.

The band will release the full-length recording of The Ghost of Childhood in April of 2024.

"A masterpiece. Beautifully structured songs, heartbreaking lyrics..."

—Tom Nichols, The Atlantic

"The music is airy and transporting...shimmering with sometimes dark, sometimes inspirational, always thoughtful songs."

—Steve Morse, The Boston Globe

"Rich, haunting harmonies...poetry set-to-music...mystery and melancholy."

—Kirsten Conover, The Christian Science Monitor

"Spell-weavers."
